CANADA RUSHING TO SLASH LUMBER BOUGHT BY EGYPT

British Columbia Mills Going Full Blast to Turn Out Ties.

VANCOUVER, B. C., May 31.—Egypt has just placed one of the largest orders for manufactured lumber ever secured by British Columbia. Cablegrams have been received by Vancouver banks confirming the purchase of 24,000,000 feet of railway ties which was placed by an Alexandrian firm, acting as agent for the government of Egypt. One-third of the order will be rushed forward before June 1 by two special steamers of the Canadian government.

Several other big contracts have been placed by interests in England, and every indication points to a cut this year that will far eclipse the record figures of last year, when the province turned out forest products having an aggregate value of $92,638,80. The giant lumber mills along the Great Trunk Pacific Railway, which pierces the vast forest belt of Central British Columbia, are now going full blast.

A CHRONICLE OF EVENTS WITH SIDE LIGHTS ON THE MEN AND WOMEN WHO MAKE UP WASHINGTON'S COMPLEX AND INTERESTING SOCIAL LIFE

THE President and Mrs. Harding will hold an informal reception this afternoon for the members of the class of 1881 of the Naval Academy, who are having a reunion in Washington preparatory to attending the commencement exercises at the Naval Academy and whose fiftieth anniversary celebration gains added interest from the presence of Baron Sojokichi Uriu, admiral of the Japanese navy, the only surviving Japanese member of the class. The Secretary of War, John W. Weeks, who arranged the visit to the White House, is a member of this class which also included Senator O. E. Weller, of Maryland, Admiral Henry B. Wilson, commander of the Atlantic fleet; Maj. Gen. George Barnett, U. S. M. C.; Rear Admiral John A. Hoegewert; Rear Admiral Gustav Kaeserling and Col. Robert M. Thompson.

This morning Admiral Uriu and the other members of the class were escorted to Mount Vernon, making the trip aboard the Mayflower, with the Secretary of War as host; and tonight Secretary Weeks will give a dinner in honor of his classmates. Tomorrow the party will go to Annapolis for the commencement exercises, returning in the evening for the dinner which the Japanese Ambassador is giving in honor of his distinguished countryman. On Saturday evening the Secretary of the Navy will give a dinner at the Ritz-Carlton for Admiral Uriu and his classmates.

Baron Uriu yesterday attended the ceremonies at Arlington, accompanied by Secretary Weeks and Senator Weller, and they placed flowers on the grave of some of their former associates.

During the admiral's stay here, Capt. Thomas A. Karney, former commander of the American forces on the Yanase river, will act as his aide.

Last evening the President and Mrs. Harding witnessed the performance at Keith's, having as their guests Brigadier General and Mrs. Sawyer and Dr. and Mrs. Carl Sawyer.

Mrs. Harding will receive a number of ladies by appointment this afternoon.

GOING TO CHARLOTTESVILLE.

The French ambassador, M. Jusserand, will go to Charlottesville, Va., to attend the centennial ceremonies at the University of Virginia and will make a dress there tonight.

The British ambassador, Sir Auckland Geddes, will also make an address. The Swiss minister, Mr. Peter, is leaving today for Charlottesville and Mrs. Peter will accompany him.

Congressman and Mrs. Henry D. Flood went down to the university last night and will remain until the end of the centennial celebration; and Judge and Mrs. Clarence Goodwin, who have been at Warman Park Hotel over the week-end, are also among the guests at Charlottesville. Judge Goodwin will represent the University of Syracuse at the ceremonies.

The Minister of Sweden, Axel Wallenberg, who is spending a short time in New York, is at the St. Regis and will return the end of the week.

The new minister of Nicaragua, Gen. Emiliano Chamorro, former president of Nicaragua, is on his way to this country and will arrive here in a few weeks.

ENTERTAINING AT DINNER.

Senator Narciso Garay, the minister of foreign affairs of Panama, entertained a party of eight at dinner last evening at the Willard in compliment to Dr. L. S. Rowe, director-general of the Pan-American Union.

Senator Garay was the guest of honor at luncheon at the Willard yesterday, the host being Senator Don J. E. Lefevre, charge d'affaires of Panama.

BACHELORS HOSTS.

The bachelor attaches of the British embassy staff will entertain at a dinner dance tonight at the Columbia County Club for a company of sixty.

The special guests will be: Capt. the Hon. Arthur Strutt, R. N.; Commander Hothorn, R. N.; and Lieutenant Huffer, R. N., who are on leave from duty in the West Indies.

A cabaret will follow the dinner, the program being given by the Misses Frances and Louise Hoar, both talented amateur actresses, who have had experience with the famous Vincent Club of Boston, as well as in theatricals in Washington; Henry Getty Chilton; Hugh V. Tennant and Capt. J. F. Harker, of the embassy staff, with George Angus Garrett at the piano. Mr. Chilton is a finished actor and those who saw "Hullo Washington" the sparkling revue put on by society girls and young men some time ago, still retain humorous memories of the clever "turn" which Captain Harker and Mr. Tennant contributed.

The hosts for the party tonight are Maj. Gen. H. K. Bethell, military attaché of the embassy; Air Commodore Lionel E. O. Charlton, Capt. S. R. Bailey, the naval attaché; M. D. Peterson, Arthur Yencken, Count John de Salls, H. C. A. Carpenter, A. P. Graves, Capt. C. J. Henry, H. H. Sims, Captain Harker, Mr. Tennant and L. McCormick-Goodhart.

Maj. Gen. and Mrs. John A. Lejeune will be the guests of honor this evening at a dinner dance which Dr. and Mrs. Loren Johnson are giving. There will be 100 guests at dinner and additional guests will come in for the dancing.

The tables will be laid in the beautiful Italian garden of Dr. and Mrs. Johnson's charming Sixteenth street home, and the dancing will take place on the terraces.

Mrs. Harry C. Woodward will receive this afternoon at her home in Lamont street.

Mrs. Alexander Sharp and Mrs. Alexander Sharp, Jr., who are planning to spend the summer in Washington at their lovely home in Georgetown, will receive every Wednesday evening after 8 o'clock during the summer months.

Mr. and Mrs. William McClellan Ritter have closed their Washington residence, which they opened for the spring season, and have started for their summer home at Manchester, Vt. They motored as far as New York and are making a short visit there.

Comdr and Mrs. Lamar D. Leahy are entertaining a little house party, and have as guests Mrs. Leahy's mother, Mrs. Charles Clinton; her brother, Kenneth Clinton, and Gordon Smilie, of New York, who came to Washington for the Decoration Day holiday.

"FIRST NIGHT" AT BELASCO.

"A Marriageable Mother," the comedy of Washington social life written by Mrs. C. C. Calhoun, and presented at the Belasco Theater, attracted a large audience last evening which awaited with curiosity the unfolding of a drama that mirrored life here at the national capital. If any had come to criticize surely all remained to applaud a really amusing play, surprisingly well acted, beautifully staged, and gorgeously costumed.

It required courage for a member of society to present a satire on life as it appears to those who move in the charmed circle that includes diplomatic, official and resident groups each of which has its own traditions. A Mrs. Calhoun not only wrote the comedy, but appeared in the title role her task was a doubly difficult one, but after the first few moments it was evident that she had won the audience which gave enthusiastic response to all the bright lines.

IN THE AUDIENCE.

The Minister of Switzerland and Mrs. Peter entertained a box party and had Miss Rosalind Wright among their guests. In the next box Mrs. Charles Boughton Wood entertained Mrs. Hampson, Gary, Mrs. George Ehle, Miss Mary Morgan, William Phelps Eno and Major Reginald Foster. Mrs. Calhoun's box was occupied by Judge and Mrs. Charles B. Howry, Miss Mary Howry, and Mrs. Gooch, Miss Mabel Boardman was also hostess to an interesting box party.

Maj. Gen. George Barnett, whose wife had an important role in the comedy, was in the audience with Mrs. James McDonald, Mrs. James Hamilton Lewis, Maj. William Eric Fowler and Arthur Bradley Campbell. Mrs. Calhoun's son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Peter A. Drury, Jr., were also among the interested spectators and others noted in the brilliant audience were Senator and Mrs. Truman Newberry, Mrs. Gibson Fahnestock, Mrs. Robert Hinckley, Mrs. Henry T. Oxnard, Miss Adeline Oxnard, Mr. and Mrs. Alexander Bentley, Mrs. Frederick R. Harris, Miss Dorothea Roberts, Capt. and Mrs. Edward Goring Bliss, Mr. and Mrs. Edward S. Fuller, Mr. and Mrs. William Corcoran Hill, Mrs. Stephen B. Elkins, Mrs. Joseph D. Neill, Mrs. Joseph H. Gaines, Miss Carolyn Nash, Major Wilfred Blunt, Mrs. Alfred B. Taylor, Mr. and Mrs. John Walker Holcombe, Mrs. Charles Y. Wheeler, Miss Eleanor Wheeler, Mrs. Theodore Noyes, Miss Daisy Prentiss, George Bond Cochran, Mrs. Henry Wells, Dr. and Mrs. Tom Williams, Col. and Mrs. Myron Parker, Dr. and Mrs. Loren Johnson, Mrs. Harde Walker, Mrs. J. Y. Mason Blunt, Judge Sidney Ballou, Mr. and Mrs. Donald Washburn, Mrs. John H. Hewson, and Mrs. Horace G. Macfarland.

Senator Thomas J. Walsh and his son-in-law and daughter, Comdr and Mrs. Emmett C. Guder were members of an interesting group which also included Col. and Mrs. Charles H. Patterson and Miss Margaret Benson. In another party nearby were Miss May Adams, Mrs. D. Buchanan Merriman, Comdr. and Mrs. William Littlefield, Ralph Totten and Mr. Wilson, of Birmingham, Ala., who is his guest. Others present were Miss Janet Richards, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Sim Lea, Charles Phillips Hill, Miss Katherine Foss, Miss Eleanor Johnston, Miss Natalie Magruder, and Commander Charles Theodore Jewell.

"A Marriageable Mother" will be repeated tonight for the benefit of the Woman's National Foundation and tomorrow night for the benefit of the George Washington Memorial in which Mrs. Henry J. Dimock is so much interested. As a feature of Music Week at the matinee tomorrow the Scotch play, "Bonnie Prince Charlie and Flora MacDonald," by Mrs. Calhoun will be substituted for "A Marriageable Mother." Louis Thompson will have the title role and will be supported by the Albion quartette. John Hoffman will appear as Andy McDougall and Mrs. Bertha Taylor Voorhorst as Betty Burke. The Misses Ormond, who in private life are the Misses Howry, daughters of Justice and Mrs. Charles B. Howry, will present several oriental dances. John Hoffman will direct the play and George Wilson will be the accompanist of the Scotch songs. The proceeds of this performance will be contributed to the Women's Welfare.

Sebastiao Sampaio, commercial attaché of the Brazilian embassy, who has recently returned from a long absence in Brazil, is accompanied by Mrs. Sampaio and they have leased an apartment in the Connecticut, of which they are taking possession today.

Mrs. Victor Kauffmann gave a luncheon yesterday at the Shoreham. Among the guests were Mrs. Edwin (Continued on Page Fifteen.)
